Answers – Clever cats - Cat feelings activity

Picture 1 – Unsure

When cats are unsure or uneasy, they will have big eyes and crouch their bodies. It is best to leave a cat alone when they are unsure as they may scratch or bite. Sometimes cats may even give their top lip one quick lick when unsure.

Picture 2 – Tail up

Cats put their tail up when they see you to say hello. If they're particularly happy to see you, they may curl their tail over at the top like a walking stick.

Picture 3 – Scared

When cats are afraid, they put their ears and tail down, widen their eyes, crouch their body low and their whiskers look droopy. Leave a scared cat alone – they may scratch or bite because they're afraid, especially if they feel they can't easily run away to hide or get up high.

Answer – Competitive cats

Cats love to hide in boxes. They make them feel safe as they are enclosed, they make a good place to hide (all cats need this) and are a good, cheap toy. They are useful for enrichment and providing mental stimulation.
